

OUR

GOALS

- Inform the public of city resources
- Share information about the work of the Controller's office
- Enhance financial literacy for youth
- Build relationships with community groups and leaders

HELP US

HELP YOU

Philadelphians and businesses play a major role in our city government by identifying suspected wrongdoing in the community. If you suspect misuse of city resources or financial fraud, we encourage you to report it to the Controller's Office.

GET IN TOUCH

Office: 215-686-6680

controller.phila.gov

Municipal Services Building 12th Fl.
1401 John F. Kennedy Boulevard
Philadelphia, PA 19102-1679

WELCOME TO THE COMMUNITY AFFAIRS DIVISION

OFFICE OF THE CITY CONTROLLER

CITY CONTROLLER
CHRISTY BRADY

To report fraud, waste, or abuse call our hotline:
215-686-3804

For additional city services contact 311 or 215-686-1776

WHAT WE'RE DOING IN THE COMMUNITY

- Attending community meetings and events by request
- Listening and addressing community concerns
- Hosting community events across the city
- Working with other agencies to improve the quality of life of all Philadelphians
- Working with government partners to prevent senior fraud

TRAININGS & PRESENTATIONS OUR OFFICE OFFERS

Financial Fraud: Stop Elder Abuse

Learn about financial fraud and abuse against older adults, how it occurs, tips for prevention, and where to report.

Conflict Resolution & Peer Mediation

This training provides youth and young adults (ages 12-24) with the skills to resolve peer disagreements in a healthy, safe, and non-violent manner.

Contact us today to schedule a presentation!

